Answer to opposition of Application for Compensation

Dear Judge Gambardella,

As per your request, we are sending you our answer as to why we are opposing Jonathan Stone's application for compensation. We are attaching the email that was sent to us on August 11, 2016 from his office after a phone conference that we had with him in which he stated he would not be seeking compensation. He sent us the email confirming that fact. We were unaware, at that time, that he had sent you the letter dated August 10, 2016, also attached, otherwise we would have prepared our answer prior to the court date on September 7, 2016 as to why we were opposed to his compensation fee motion.

Thank you for your time

Sincerely

Brian Jay Finigan

Tracy Ann Finigan

Brian and Tracy:

This email is to confirm Jonathan has no intention to pursue the collection of fees listed in the Application for Compensation filed August 4, 2016.

Regards,

Re: In re Brian and Tracy Finigan
Case number: 16-22585 (RG)
Opposition to Motion to Withdraw and Application for Compensation

Dear Judge Gambardella:

Thank you for your courtesies.

Mr. and Mrs. Finigan sent an email whereby they oppose my Motion to Withdraw as well as my Application for Compensation. My office requested permission to forward their email back to me so that their reasons can be brought to Your Honor's attention.

While they responded back stating that it is my office that lacks communication with them and went into a litany of grievances with my office and with me.

And yet I cannot get their consent to raise their concerns to Your Honor.

That said, in the interest of preserving the integrity of the Court, I am filing this letter as their Opposition to my Motion to Withdraw and to my Application for Compensation.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Stone, Esquire
